

U.S. Department of Justice

*United States Attorney
Northern District of Illinois
Western Division*

Scott A. Verseman
Assistant U.S. Attorney
www.usdoj.gov/usao/iln

308 West State Street - Room 300
Rockford, Illinois 61101

PH: (815) 987-4444
FAX: (815) 987-4236

February 10, 2009

ROCKFORD LOAN OFFICER SENTENCED TO TWELVE YEARS IN PRISON FOR MORTGAGE FRAUD

ROCKFORD – PATRICK J. FITZGERALD, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois; and ROBERT D. GRANT, Special Agent-In-Charge of the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, today made the following announcement:

Late yesterday afternoon, United States District Judge Frederick J. Kapala sentenced MITCHEL A. FUCHS, (also known as “Mike Fox”), 41, of Rockford, to 144 months in prison for his convictions on fourteen counts of wire and mail fraud. Fuchs was convicted on November 4, 2008, after a 7-day jury trial.

Fuchs had been indicted on December 18, 2007. Also charged in the indictment were FRANK G. ANAST, 59, of Rockford, and JESSICA L. GIBSON, 26, of Loves Park, Illinois. The indictment alleged that Fuchs, Anast, and Gibson defrauded commercial lenders by causing unqualified loan applicants to receive commercial loans.

The indictment charged that from at least 2002 through approximately August of 2004, Fuchs was employed as a loan officer at Mortgage Solutions, a mortgage brokerage company located at 2222 East State Street in Rockford. From approximately August of 2004 through at least October of 2005, the indictment alleged, Fuchs was employed as a loan officer at Leader Mortgage, located at 1437 Myott Avenue in Rockford. Both Mortgage Solutions and Leader Mortgage earned fees by assisting customers in obtaining mortgage-backed loans from commercial lenders. From approximately February of 2004 through August of 2004, Gibson worked for Fuchs as a loan processor at Mortgage Solutions. During this same time period, Anast was self-employed doing computer work.

The indictment alleged that while he worked at Mortgage Solutions, Fuchs defrauded several commercial lenders by deceiving them into funding loans for unqualified loan applicants. Specifically, the indictment charged that Fuchs caused numerous fraudulent documents to be created and sent to the lenders. Among other things, the indictment alleged that: (1) Fuchs paid Anast to create fictitious pay stubs and W-2s for Fuchs’ loan customers; (2) Fuchs and Gibson falsely altered pay stubs and W-2s for other loan customers; (3) Fuchs and Gibson falsely altered credit reports for Fuchs’ loan customers; (4) Fuchs created fictitious cashier’s checks and official bank checks to falsely show that his loan customers had invested their own funds in the properties they were purchasing; and (5) Fuchs and Gibson created fraudulent investment statements in order to show that loan customers had sufficient funds available to close on the loans they were seeking. The indictment further charged that Fuchs continued to commit fraud after he left Mortgage Solutions and went to work at Leader Mortgage.

According to the indictment, the fraudulent conduct committed by Fuchs, Anast, and Gibson placed various commercial lenders at risk of losing hundreds of thousands of dollars. The indictment further stated that Fuchs profited from the scheme by earning commissions on loans he arranged for unqualified applicants.

The indictment charged Fuchs with thirteen counts of wire fraud and one count of mail fraud. The jury found Fuchs guilty on all fourteen counts.

In addition to the twelve years of imprisonment, Judge Kapala also sentenced Fuchs to pay $183,890.65 in restitution to the lenders who were victimized by the fraud scheme. The judge also ordered Fuchs to pay a special assessment of $1400. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court revoked the bond and ordered the U.S. Marshals to take Fuchs into custody.

Anast pled guilty to one count of wire fraud on February 21, 2008. Gibson pled guilty to one count of wire fraud on May 9, 2008. Both Anast and Gibson were sentenced on November 14, 2008. Anast was sentenced to five years of probation, ten months of which are to be served on home confinement, and ordered to pay $87,369.99 in restitution. The court sentenced Gibson to four years of probation, two months of which are to be served on home confinement, and ordered her to pay $29,510.24 in restitution.

The case was investigated by the Rockford office of the FBI, with assistance from the Rockford Police Department. The case was prosecuted in federal court by Assistant United States Attorneys SCOTT A. VERSEMAN and JOHN G. McKENZIE.

#####